Interesting Guests Visit Knolls Family

By VIRGINIA JONES Davenport 6-1617

This week finds your regular reporter, Teo Cunningham, 'way up in beautiful Washington State on a vacation. We all wish her loads of fun! I hope that I will be hearing from all of you concerning your family news. . . . Please call me at Davenport 6-1617.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kolls and family of 1971 Reynosa Dr. have very exciting guests at their home these days. They are Mrs. Kolls' sister and her husband, Colonel and Mrs. Doug Moore and children Doug, Steven and Richard from Lima, Peru. The colonel, who is in the Air Force, has been attached to the American Embassy at Lima for the past three years and will report to Norfolk, Va. in two weeks. From Peru and assigned to them is their "amah," who serves as a governess and housekeeper as long as she so desires. The Moores encountered many interesting moments in Peru. Mrs. Moore's youngest son was born in Lima on Feb. 19, while Mrs. Kolls' youngest was born on April 19 here at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Quite a busy household!

Seen arriving home last week from a three weeks' trip were the Paul Crossmans of 2143 Middlebrook Rd., who with their children Karen and Craig are joyed visiting New York and Vermont. Since they hadn't been home since 1947, there were lots of years to catch up on and many old friends to see. Mothers of both Crossmans were visited, making the trip that much more exciting.

Although not really living in Kettler Knolls, but just a short block away, we'd still like to say "welcome home" to Raymond Roger, who has joined his wife and children Sandy, Melvin and Billy at their home, 2827 Alberta St. Mr. Roger has been in Chicago with the Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The Rachel Circle 7, WSCS, held its 4th annual breakfast at Torrance Park last Tuesday, July 7, with Mrs. Jackie Shehart, of 23204 Falena St., the new president, presiding. Starting at 9:30 a.m., all members and their families and guests enjoyed delicious eating. Special guests for the day were the Rev. and Mrs. John Taylor and family, and Mrs. J. S. McMullen, WSCS president. New members of Circle 7 are Meses Miriam Wassenberg, Yee Reid, Barbara Kell, Phyllis Morgan and Mary Courter.

Bernie and Woodie Hartley and sons, of 1731 W. 234th St., are "off" this weekend to Sigoourney, Ia., where they will visit with friends and relatives for two or three weeks. We know they'll certainly enjoy their vacation.

Recently returned from a two-week vacation trip to Chicago and Bloomington, Ill. were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jonas Jr. and sons, of 23229 Huber St. Also traveling with them were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jonas Sr., formerly of 1735 W. 234th St. We hear that they enjoyed visiting friends and relatives but the HEAT was terrific. Before they returned home they traveled to Lansing, Mich. and "picked up" a new car.

The Fischers, Goody, Mickey, David, Jeffrey and Pamela of picture in last week's Herald, 2094 Reynosa Dr., are in Provo, Utah this week, undoubtedly enjoying the fishing and having fun! They are staying two weeks with Goody's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Day.

Mrs. Dorothy Palmer, of 2110 Middlebrook Rd., is presently entertaining her guest for the summer, her father, Mr. Timothy Burns of Boston, Mass. We hope our weather here will please the Eastern visitor.

Mrs. Bernie Hartley entertained last Tuesday evening with a "Tupper" party at her 234th St. home. Guests enjoying the evening of demonstration by Doris Woods and refreshments were Mesdames Velma Lucas, Thelma Seiser, Barbara Juvet, Wanda Yancey, Rose Schaeffer, Lena Osweiler, all of Torrance, and Betty Robinson of Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Lorraine Stanton of Falena St. enjoyed a two weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. Vern Davis of Napa, Calif. recently. Her father, Dave Davis, also visited a few days and then returned to Napa with the Stanton's offspring, Bonnie and Leslie. Instead of taking a "rest," Lorraine is presently taking care of her two nieces from San Diego, Judy and Jacqueline Wadde. What a turnabout or something, huh, Lorraine?

Norman and Phyllis Welters and daughters Nancy and Diana, of 1844 Marinette St., left last Saturday for Crestline for a week of fun and relaxation. They recently purchased a lot at Big Bear and will no doubt make many more trips this summer building their cabin.

Robert and Louise Gilmore and children Daryle and Sharron, of 1727 W. 234th St., returned also from a two-and-a-half weeks' trip to Wichita, Kans., where they visited relatives. On the return trip they enjoyed seeing other states—Utah, Nevada, and Colorado.

Recommended entertainment over the weekend for the entire family: A trip to the Little League Ball Park just off the new Crenshaw Blvd. and Pacific Coast Hwy. on Saturday and Sunday, July 18 and 19, at 2 p.m. both days. These boys are wonderful ball players, and when you see their enthusiasm and the audience's continued boosting—the excitement of each inning—each game will stimulate you too! Kettler Knolls is represented by the manager of the "Kiwans" Dodgers, Merle Richardson of 22903 Cabrillo Ave., his son Tommy, and Lloyd Davis, who is the son of Margaret and Gene Beavers of Middlebrook Rd. If you see Saturday's game at 2 p.m., then you'll go back Sunday for the "double-header."

Scenes seen buzzin' around: The M. R. Cooks on Gramercy Ave. painting their house—Norman Wainwright of Reynosa Dr. busy patio-building; the James Crawfords, of Santa Fe St. also painting; the Dave Footes' new room nearing completion; Walt West busy on his new den; Larry Helphand splashing in his new wading pool, a birthday gift, ably assisted by 20-odd neighbor children; the Schaeffers busy packing; another family soon to leave us we hear are the Grubbs of Falena St.; Jack Baldwin now home convalescing and sporting his "corset"; and bouquets to Mrs. Josephine Kelly of 2144 Middlebrook Rd., of whom we saw a picture in last week's Herald.
